Chapter 1 - Top Affiliate Tactics: Introduction

This eBook will provide you with 8 powerful methods you can use to boost your affiliate commissions from selling other people's products and services.

Affiliate marketing is great, because you can earn big commissions just promoting products you DON'T even have to create!

Of course, like everything else in life, it takes multiple tries to reach the top level. But I assure you that through the coming pages, I can help you reduce your learning curve significantly and you will make less guesswork... and mistakes!

So, let's begin by covering the first of the 8 methods you can use in boosting your affiliate promotion... and the commissions! Classified Ads...

Chapter 2 - Using Classified Ads

The process of using classified ads to generate sales for any product – whether it be an original product or an affiliate product – is often over-simplified and discouraged. This is, in part, because it actually is one of the harder ways in which you can advertise.

It requires you to use a small amount of words to communicate an important point, which will either make or break your ability to garner interest in the product in question. In most cases, supposed experts will discourage you from using classified ads because they themselves have never had much luck using them – NOT because classified ads aren't a viable method of advertising.

So how can you use classified ads correctly to generate a considerable amount of traffic to your affiliate product sales page?

The first step entails finding viable places to advertise. Again, many of the so-called experts will jump in and either tell you to use free sites or that free sites never work. The truth here, too, is somewhat in between: free sites can work, but you must use them carefully. For instance, if you want to generate traffic from sites that allow you to post free classifieds, you will have to find ones that actually receive traffic themselves.

One example of a site that receives a massive amount of traffic, but also allows you to post classified ads for free is craigslist, which you can find at the following URL:

<http://www.craigslist.com>

As long as you post classified ads in the proper section, you can do it completely free of charge. Additionally, you can do this on each of the craigslist sites for the metropolitan areas in the United States.

Another place you can post free classified ads is Yahoo. You can find this feature at the following URL: <http://classifieds.yahoo.com/>.

Again, as long as its on topic, you can post a classified at for whatever you want.

Now, with this in mind, you will want to consider the best way in which you can construct your classified ad. I personally suggest creating a headline or first line that uses psychological triggers.

Tip: With classifieds, you're not paying by the click. It's either free or you're paying for a certain period of time or impressions, so your goal should be to generate as many clicks as possible, so use words like "cheap," "free," "proven," and "shocking" to draw attention to your ad.

Once you have successfully drawn attention to your ad through the headline, you will then want to seal the deal by providing viewers with a reason to click through, provided that your affiliate product is something they will want to buy. You can do this by explicitly stating a quantifiable benefit in the second line of the classified ad – and then stating a crucial feature in the third line.

Also, make sure you include an opt-in form inside your classified ad, so that you can capture your readers email addresses, allowing you to "build your list". Offer a free digital product, such as an eBook, as an incentive to convince your readers to give up their email addresses.

Tip: Building a list is the single most important thing you must do, if you want to be successful making money online with affiliate marketing. Why? Because you are then able to follow up with your subscribers again and again about the affiliate products that you are promoting. It has been shown that 95% or so of people will not buy the first time they are exposed to an affiliate product, like the affiliate product you are promoting in your classified ad. That is why it is so important to capture your readers email addresses, because this allows you to follow up with them about your affiliate product, through emails. (It has been shown that people are most likely to buy a product only after being exposed to it 5-6 times.)

If you are interested in learning how to easily build a responsive, profitable email list of subscribers, then I highly recommend you check out this eBook: List Creation Secrets

Once you have gained some experience posting ads on free classified ad mediums, you will want to move on to major electronic publications, including large e-zines and authority sites; however, before you do this, you should be confident in the classified ad and your conversion rate.

Also, an excellent site that you have to pay to post classified ads on is eBay ($9.95 for 30 days). Once you get the hang of creating good, effective classified ads, I strongly recommend you use eBay because it receives a huge amount of quality traffic each and every day.

Chapter 3 - Leveraging with E-zine Advertising

So how can you affectively advertise in E-zines and reap a profit from affiliate products?

There are a number of different ways, of which, I will cover three below:

1. Target E-zines that are related to your specific affiliate product.

Create a viral report that is related to your affiliate product. Purchase sponsor ads in reputable E-zines – and send all of those interested to a page where they can download your viral report for free. This report will have an embedded affiliate link, which will generate sales on your behalf.

2. Create a persuasive solo ad.

Again, start off by purchasing solo ad space in cheaper E-zines – ones that are responsive, but have a low subscription count. Test your solo ads to determine your approximate conversion rate with the given affiliate product. Once you have a rough handle on your profit margin, attempt to market your solo ads in larger publications, including e-zines with subscriber bases of over 100,000. Keep in mind that this will be expensive, but it will also pay off if you did your homework in the previous steps.

3. Last, consider targeting high-end online publications with your ads.

These will include ones that don't normally include their sites in E-zine directories, such as authority sites that publish a monthly E-zine in PDF format. These often have high response rates and will similarly draw the best response if you use them correctly.

Here are two good E-zine directories that provide you with a variety of different E-zines to choose from and advertise in:

Chapter 4 - Solo Ads – Outmoded or Back in Style?

Now we're going to go over solo ads:

For years, Internet marketers have asserted that solo ads are simply outmoded – they're a dinosaur that no longer has the potential to reap any profits; however, another group of Internet marketers knows that the exact opposite is the truth: solo ads can reap massive profits, but in order to do so, they must be engineered perfectly, as must the selection of the solo ad distributor.

A solo ad can be a number of things. Usually, it is a large ad between 200 and 300 words that is placed at the very center of a page. The rate on solo ads is higher than on all other potential options, but it also captures readers' attention the most by far. If you have the money to spend on a solo ad, it can be an excellent investment.

However, as with all investments (and advertisements for that matter), you must conduct your due diligence. This involves a considerable amount of research.

Now, when conducting research for a solo ad, there are two things you will want to look at:

- 1) The first is a list of your potential advertising outlets (in this case, probably e-zines); and
- 2) A list of potential approaches you can take on your solo ad.

Let's start with the first part – finding a list of e-zines in which you can put a solo ad, such as at <http://www.ezineadvertising.com/cgi-bin/pz.cgi>.

Once you have selected reputable e-zines to advertise in, you will then want to begin creating your solo ad. There are a number of writing “formulas” you can use to do this; however, you will always want to keep in mind what it is that your potential customer wants most.

In advertising, it is often easy to project our own wants in a given product onto potential buyers; however, it is important – when communicating with them – that you talk about their wants, not yours.

Now, when it comes to creating solo ads, I personally suggest that you spend some time at the following URL, learning about what it takes to convert readers into buyers: <http://www.copywritersboard.com/>.

Furthermore, I suggest that you go beyond simply writing copy and write as you would in the specific medium. For instance, if your solo ad will be featured in an e-zine, then you will want to write as if you are contacting members of a mailing list about a special offer or something similar. You may even want to refer to the owner of the list by his/her first name if he/she allows that.

If you are not confident in creating your own solo ad or simply don't have the time, then you can outsource this work to others. You can find excellent copywriters at Elance and Guru. Here are the URLs:

<http://www.elance.com/>

<http://www.guru.com/>

Keep all of these skills in mind when conducting solo ad campaigns. All you have to do is select the right advertising mediums and create an excellent ad – and your effort will pay off three fold.

Chapter 5 - The Cheapest, Fastest Way to Advertise on the Internet: Forum Posting

Posting on forums is one of the cheapest and fastest ways in which you can advertise affiliates products on the Internet. However, in order to do this successfully, you must do a number of things carefully.

Important: Simply starting a thread that contains an affiliate link might be a good way to get banned from a particular forum board, but it will never be a good way to make sales.

The general procedure involves making multiple posts on a forum board before you even setup a signature file, which includes a link to your site. Even if the particular forum you are using does not specifically mandate this, you will want to do this, anyway, as it will increase your credibility – which is your real goal.

You can start by finding a number of forums for your particular niche or marketing angle, such as at <http://www.big-boards.com/>.

The first resource is currently the largest forum directory on the Internet. The second resource contains lesser directories, but includes some that are not listed on Big Boards.

You can also easily find forums related to the topic of your affiliate product by typing in " 'your topic' + forum" into Google or any search engine. So, if your affiliate product is about how to lose weight, you would type in "weight loss + forum" into Google.

Now, once you have selected a number of directories that match your specific marketing angle and affiliate product, you will want to investigate to determine whether or not they have excess rules regulating signature files.

For instance, some sites do not allow any links in signature files; others, by contrast, allow links, but do not allow any commercial links. Make sure you know what the rules are before you post. Otherwise, you are simply setting yourself up to be banned from the forum.

Next, take the list of forums you have created – that are both relevant to your topic and allow commercial links – and begin developing a reputation on those forums. Post regularly, avoid meaningless fights and flaming, and contribute useful, on-target information to discussions. In a matter of 1-2 weeks, you will have developed a reputation, provided that the forum receives a considerable amount of traffic.

Once you have developed a good reputation, you will want to begin advertising through your forum signature. Ideally, you will want to include some eye-catching assortment of colors, symbols, and words in your signature.

This will draw people's attention. You will then want to link them to something other than an affiliate page – whether it is a page you created to sell an affiliate product or an auto responder course used to capture email addresses.

Remember to repeat this process in all applicable forums. Look for high traffic forums that allow commercial link posting in signature files – and that also happen to fit with your specific audience-targeting and marketing angle goals.

Next, create a reputation. Last, add your signature in some attractive way that draws visitors' attention, but is also likely to convert them into interested clickers.

One excellent internet marketing forum that allows signature files is the Digital Point forum. You can check them out here: <http://forums.digitalpoint.com/>

Chapter 6 - Social Networking Sites For Affiliate Marketing

You might not know this, but social networking sites aren't just for teenagers anymore. In fact, social networking sites have evolved into something different altogether than what they once were – networks composed mainly of teenage girls. Today, social networking sites span the spectrum of demographic groups. While teenagers are still more apt to use them than older people, there are now niche social networking sites, which target people who all share some common interest, such as a skateboarding or investing.

Now, in addition to teenagers and adults, social networks are increasingly becoming used by another group – businesses. That's right: many businesses are now infiltrating social networks to advertise in some subtle manner – and then replicate their message through systems that are already available within the social network.

The most prominent social network is <http://www.MySpace.com>.

If the affiliate product you are selling has a broad appeal, you may want to use MySpace to market your product, as you will be able to reach the largest crowd quickly.

Now, there are a number of different ways in which you can market your affiliate product through MySpace. One way is to setup a profile, purchase what is called an "adder robot," and then begin adding friends to your list on a daily basis. The robot can add as many as 300 per day without any problems. I recommend <http://www.badderadder.com/> for this purpose.

Depending on your goals, you may want to add a personal profile for yourself and then talk about your business/product on your page; or you may want to simply create a profile for your business and use that to market your product.

While you can send out bulletins advertising your product through MySpace, this is generally discouraged by the MySpace staff and could lead to you getting banned. It is probably a good idea to avoid this; instead, post related bulletins that don't advertise your product, but talk about something similar.

This will drive interested visitors to your page, where they can learn more about the affiliate product you are selling. Note, however, that you will have to link to a non-affiliate page, as affiliate links are not allowed on MySpace.

Once you have gained some experience marketing to the MySpace crowd, you will want to consider looking at other social networking sites.

One other large site is Friendster, which you can find at the following URL: <http://www.friendster.com>.

<http://www.facebook.com> is another large social networking site, which caters specifically to college and high school students. You will also want to look for niche networking sites, which will afford you an opportunity to capture a more targeted audience.

Whichever sites you decide to use, keep the following in mind: your goal should be to develop a network of people who share a common interest and could potentially be interested in your specific product.

For this reason, it is always a good idea to think long term (i.e. don't do things that are going to get you banned); instead, concentrate on building your network and introducing them to your affiliate product.

Chapter 7 - Generate Traffic and Affiliate Sales with Free Viral eBooks

Did you know that the free viral eBook is quite possibly the most deadly weapon in an affiliate marketer's arsenal?

It allows him or her to quickly multiply his or her efforts while slashing down on marketing costs. All the marketer has to do is develop a viral eBook for little or no cost, embed an affiliate link in the eBook, and then find various avenues of distribution that will ensure that the eBook is distributed as far as possible – from group to group to group.

Now, with this being said, when it comes to developing viral eBooks, a considerable amount of precise calculation and back-end system setup is needed. Simply jotting down garbage, tossing in an affiliate link, and then attempting to send it to everyone you know in .txt format isn't likely to gain you anything; nor is it likely to multiply your efforts by inducing other marketers to redistribute the eBook for you.

Instead, you must start from a different point. You must determine what topic people are looking for related to your specific affiliate product.

For instance, do they need more information about the product itself? Do they need to know how to use that product effectively? Whatever your angle happens to be, make sure that it lines up with the wants of your customers and also ties in nicely with your affiliate product.

Next, create the viral eBook and embed your affiliate link in multiple places. If you have a site and a list, you may want to instead post a link to your list – and then use back-end mechanisms to make the sale.

Your last step is to actually ensure that this viral eBook:

- a) Gets into as many people's hands as humanly possible; and
- b) Gets into the hands of people who will definitely redistribute it to others without charging any fees. This is where the art of free viral eBook distribution comes into play.

A good way to distribute your viral eBook is to create a buzz on forums. You will want to discuss some specific experience you had related to the topic you will cover in the eBook – and you will want to do it well in advance of your release date. You will then want to start talking up your release – and also explain that the eBook will be completely free. Furthermore, you may want to even start locking people in for immediate distribution via email by getting them to join a list. To learn more about viral marketing through this method, you may want to check out some of the case studies at the following URL: <http://www.marketingsherpa.com/>.

Additionally, you may want to check out <http://www.viralPDF.com>, which is an excellent tool that allows others to “rebrand” some or all of your affiliate links throughout your eBook. This gives others an added incentive to distribute your eBook as much as possible, since they now have the opportunity to make money from anyone who clicks on one of the rebranded affiliate links and ends up buying the affiliate product.

Once you have begun building a forum buzz for the eBook, you will want to go to e-zine owners in your particular niche and ask them if they are interested in getting a free eBook on whichever subject you are marketing. The distribution effect will multiply, subsequently multiplying your sales.

Another good, free way to distribute your viral ebooks is to submit them to ebook directories. I recommend you add an opt-in form to capture visitors email addresses before you provide them with your free viral ebook. That way you can follow up with them about your viral ebook and send them future promotions concerning affiliate products you are promoting. Here is a list of some good ebook directories:

<http://www.thefreesite.com>

Chapter 8 - Build Your Own Mailing List... Even Though You're an Affiliate!

Today, I want to share with you one of the biggest mistakes affiliates make. I want to share this with you so you won't make the same mistake:

The one major mistake many affiliates make is NOT setting up a list!

Affiliates will often send traffic to their affiliate links, rather than using that traffic to build a list. When they do this, they are unknowingly making a bet that their visitors will buy on first contact. Unfortunately, this is generally not the case.

Visitors often need to be warmed up to a product – through the course of multiple visits and additional information – before they are willing to purchase from a person or a business. This is where building a list comes into play.

By building a list, affiliates can fix this problem. Additionally, they can retain traffic, warm it up, and then direct it to different purchases in the future. This means that it isn't a one-shot deal: instead, they can attempt to sell the same person multiple products over the course of time.

Now, in order to do this successfully, the affiliate in question must purchase the necessary tools. I personally suggest using AWeber for the actual auto responder service.

AWeber is relatively inexpensive ($20/mo.) and comes with a formidable range of services, including spam checkers and macros. Best of all, it is whitelisted by many email clients and boasts a delivery rate of 99%.

This service will not only manage your list, but it will also help you build it. It includes free tools that allow you to create web forms, pop-ups, and hover-ins – all of which can be used to increase your opt-in rate.

Now, in addition to purchasing the auto responder service, you will need to setup your own site if you do not already own one. If you already own a related site, you can simply add your opt in form to a page on your existing site. If not, I suggest you purchase a cheap domain name and web hosting. I highly recommend you use 1&1 for creating your domains and Kiosk for your web hosting. These are two excellent companies that I have found to work very well.

Once you have your site and your auto responder setup, there are only two steps left: the first is building a course of some sort that is related to the affiliate products you will sell; and the second is creating an opt-in form that converts.

The first part is relatively easy. Start by determining your topic and then outline it over the course of five to seven days. Remember that everything should be written as if you are talking to a person, rather than as if you are writing a formal article.

If you don't feel comfortable writing these articles yourself, you can always hire a ghostwriter at <http://www.elance.com> for $5-15 per issue, depending on the size.

Once you have created your auto responder series, you will want to feed it into your auto responder, setup advertisements in the text for the affiliate product you are planning to sell, and then create an opt-in form for your list.

Once you have setup your opt-in form, the only remaining step is to drive various traffic sources to your opt-in list, collect their email addresses – and then wait for the commissions to roll in!

Conclusion

I hope you found this eBook to be useful. I encourage you to take action on the information I have provided to you in this eBook. Affiliate marketing really is an excellent way to make good, long-term money online. It does take some time and effort to get started, but once you do, the majority of the affiliate marketing process will be running on complete autopilot, which is a huge plus.

You now have 8 excellent affiliate marketing tactics at your finger tips waiting to be used. You can use any one or more of them, combine, mix and match... and observe your results in your affiliate earnings.

I wish you all the best in your affiliate marketing career! Good Luck!
